ANIMALS BY MOJTABA RAMZI CHARM

I want to talk about Men and Animals
It's an old relation between us and the Animals
Everybody knows we need Animals
Not purely to keep Animals
Or that we kill Animals
Or that we eat Animals
Or that we also wear Animals

Yes, we do love Animals
We tell the story of Animals
We have sex like Animals,
Which is the basic act to survive like Animals
We cast spells by Animals
We make magic in the name of Animals
We build up history by the power of Animals

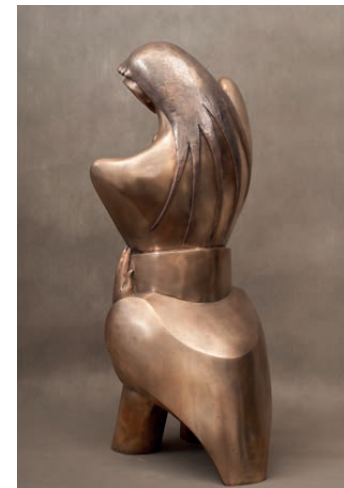

We worship Animals
We choose our myths among Animals
We appreciate the beauty of Animals
As we are afraid of the mysteries of Animals
Finally we destroy Animals
While we are the Animals
And this is the charm of Animals
